MASTER PLAN DISCUSSION/REVIEW

The purpose of the meeting is a continuation of the review of the Township Boards' Resolution to Recommend to the Planning Commission to Re-Open the Putnam Township Master Plan.

Hood put together some maps with the various areas in the Township that the Commissioners are reviewing. Various questions were brought up regarding how Putnam edges up to other municipalities, there is land designated for 1 acre zoning north of town on D-19 and it has not been developed. Why create more. Borden offered to have his office run some numbers on the available parcels and look closer at Green's property and bring to next meeting.
